Declaring Connaught Place a heritage site

2414. SHRI DHARAM PAL SABHARWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that poor maintenance, shabby structures on 1st floor and coming up of shops and restaurants in Inner Service Lanes have contributed much to the dilapidated condition of Connaught Place;

(b) if so, what action NDMC propose to take in the matter; and

(c) whether it is also a fact that under NDMC Act, no action can be taken to stop such activities unless the Connaught Place is declared as a heritage site by Government and if so, the action proposed to be taken to declare C.P. as a heritage site?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) Shops in Connaught Place are privately owned and the buildings, constructed in 1930, look shabby due to poor maintenance.

(b) New Delhi Municipal Council has prepared a plan for restoration/ development/upgradation of Connaught Place to restore its past glory.

(c) Notices can be served on the owners of the buildings if they are unfit for human habitation under section 277 of the New Delhi Municipal Council Act, 1994 and not otherwise. Connaught Place has already been declared as a heritage site/precincts.
